REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 1/6/2010 has been entered.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: In consideration of the amendment (1/6/2010) and in reconsideration of the prior office actions and responses thereto, the claimed invention is neither expressly disclosed nor fairly suggested by the prior art. The prior art does not disclose or make obvious a method of supplementing the diet of a human to enhance muscle size and strength with a combination of powdered or granular protein selected from milk whey protein or milk whey peptides; at least one of glutamine, alanine, taurine, carnitine or acetyl-L-carnitine; a compound selected from myo-, d-myo-, cis-, epi, allo-, muco-, neo-, scyllo-, d-chiro- or l-chiro-inositol, or d-pinitol; and at least one of ginseng, L-arginine, N-acetyl cysteine, glucomannan and folic acid. The prior art does not indicate the claimed inositol compounds or d-pinitol are effective in enhancing muscle size and strength and the protein in Miller is designed to be slowly released as patients with lowered health conditions are generally unable to tolerate elevated volumes of non-liposomal protein whereas the presence of glutamine, alanine, taurine, carnitine or acetyl-L-carnitine in the present claimed invention increases the speed at which the claimed components, including the milk whey protein or milk whey peptides enter the blood stream (Remarks (1/6/2010), Page 7, 8).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
